Oak Grove Cemetery is one of the most famous cemeteries in Texas. Not because of its age — the first marked grave dates back to 1837 — but because it's the final resting place for a number of legendary Texans, including four signers of the Texas Declaration of Independence.*

1 JACOB LEWIS

Participated in the storming of Bexar. Born in Houston County, Georgia on February 7, 1811, died December 4, 1883.

2 HENDERSON MUCKLEROY

Born March 24, 1830, died October 25, 1874. He was one of the original contributors to the building of the Old Nacogdoches University. His wife, Mary C. was born on February 29, 1836 and died February 18, 1916.

3 KELSEY HARRIS DOUGLASS

Member of the Second Congress of the Republic. Commander of the Texas forces in the decisive battle with the Cherokee Indians July 16, 1839. He was a charter member of Grand Masonic Lodge of Texas. The town of Douglass, Texas is named for him. He died on October 4, 1840.

4 THOMAS JEFFERSON RUSK

He was the First Secretary of War of the Republic of Texas, a member of the Convention of 1836, commander of the left wing of the army at San Jacinto, a member of the second and third Congress of the Republic, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court (1839-40), and State Senator to the U.S. Congress (1846-47). He was born in South Carolina on December 5, 1808 and died July 29, 1857. His wife, Mary, was born August 1809 and died on April 26, 1856.

5 CAPTAIN HAYDEN ARNOLD

Commander of the Nacogdoches Company at the Battle of San Jacinto, member of the House of Representatives from Nacogdoches in the first Congress of the Republic. He was born in 1805 in Tennessee, and died in 1839.

6 FROST THORNE

Born in Glen Cove, New York in 1793, he was Texas' first millionaire. He died on December 3, 1854. Susan W. Thorn, his wife, died at the age of 92 on December 11, 1891 in Tyler, Texas. Here, too is the grave of their infant daughter, Estelle, age 2 months.

7 HAYDEN EDWARDS*

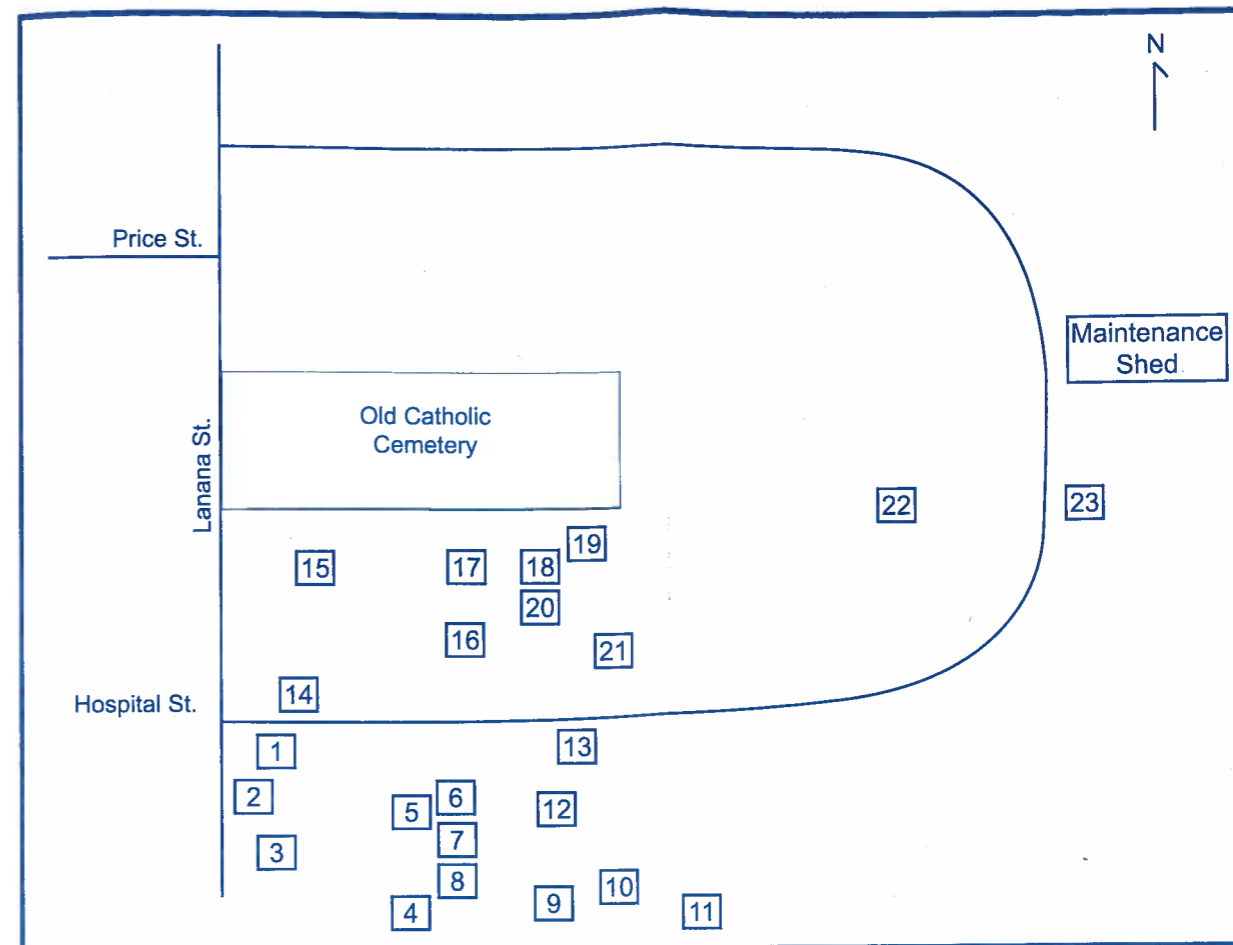

Empresario and leader of the Fredonia Rebellion. Signed the Texas Declaration of Independence. He was born in Virginia on August 12, 1771 and died on August 14, 1849. His wife, Susan Beall, was born in Maryland on April 10, 1774 and died April 6, 1849.

8 FRANKLIN JEFFERSON STARR

One of the early realtors of Nacogdoches, born in Hartford, Connecticut on April 11, 1805. He died on July 7, 1837. This is the oldest marked grave in the cemetery. His son, James Franklin Starr was born in Nacogdoches on May 18, 1836 and died on June 7, 1839. His wife was Pamela Orne Starr and his brother was Dr. James Harper Starr.

9 ADOLPHUS STERNE

Died on March 27, 1852, at the age of 51. Adolphus was a staunch supporter of the Texas Revolution, an official of the Mexican Government who had sworn not to bear arms against Mexico. It was in his home that Sam Houston was baptized into the Catholic Church. Mrs. Sterne was Houston's Godmother. The Sterne home is located on Lanana Street. The home was built in 1830. It is still preserved and is now occupied by the Sterne-Hoya House Library & Museum. His wife, E.C.R. Sterne died on March 1, 1897 at the age of 87.

10 CHARLES S. TAYLOR*

He served as alcalde under government of Coahuila and Texas, Land Commissioner of East Texas 1833, a signer of the Texas Declaration of Independence 1836, Chief Justice of Nacogdoches County 1837, District Attorney 1839, Rio Grande Land Commissioner 1854.
